Lift raises level at Rotorua Cancer Society Office

Easier access to the upstairs offices and meeting room at the Cancer Society's Rotorua office has been made possible with the installation of a lift earlier this year.

Judy Gould, Cancer Society CEO, says the lift not only makes a big difference for staff moving items such as boxes of resources upstairs but it will also greatly assist those with mobility and disability issues.

The Rotorua office has been operating at its current Ranolf St location since 1999 and the lift will add significantly to the operating function of the office.
